

HUMAN REHAB SERVICE-UNC (HRSS)

HRSS 6100 - Interpretation and Evaluation of Behavioral Research (3 Credits)

Understanding of applications of appropriate statistical techniques and necessary skills for interpretation and evaluation of research in human services. Emphasizes basic concepts, design and utilization of behavioral research.

Grading Basis: Letter Grade

A-PUBH1 Graduate students and public health certificate students only.

Additional Information: Univ of Northern Colorado.

Typically Offered: Spring.