Introduction

The University of Colorado Denver and Boulder Journey School have partnered for 20 years to offer a residency master's degree in Early Childhood Education. The Boulder Journey School Teacher Education Program includes a one-year paid teaching residency, a Colorado teaching license, director qualifications, and a trip to study in Reggio Emilia, Italy, all at a reduced tuition rate.

Program Requirements

The Residency program is a 30-credit program with 10 three-credit courses. All courses will be 8-week sessions. Fall and Spring Semesters are divided into two 8-week blocks. Please refer to the Plan of Study (p. 1) section for block information.
