

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE AND HUMAN SECURITY

Introduction

The Graduate Certificate in International Justice and Human Security (IJHS) provides an understanding of the global context of issues of crime, justice, and human security. The certificate equips students with knowledge of foundational issues of justice and inequality, sources of crime, and impacts on human security. Students will develop skills to work in the international institutional and policy space related to justice and human security.

Program Delivery

- Courses are offered on campus, online, and hybrid formats.

Certificate Requirements

1. Students must successfully complete 12 credit hours of approved coursework.
2. Students must maintain at least a 3.00 cumulative GPA in this program.
3. This program must be completed within 7 years.

Code	Title	Hours
Required Courses		6
CRJU 5135	Justice and Inequality in Global Context
PUAD 5650	Security Policies, Strategies, and Operations
Electives		6
Select two courses from the list below
CRJU 5545	Human Trafficking
CRJU 5710	Environmental Crime and Justice
PUAD 5435	Politics, Policies, and Black Markets
PUAD 5560	Corruption, Democracy, and Public Policy
PUAD 5995	Global Study Topics
Total Hours		12