The following secondary undergraduate teacher education pathways at CU Denver are a joint effort between the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CLAS) and the School of Education & Human Development (SEHD). Through these pathways, students earn a bachelor's degree through CLAS and complete the requirements for teacher licensure through the SEHD.

The table below lists the CLAS bachelor's degrees and associated licensure areas available to CU Denver undergraduate students pursuing secondary education licensure.

CLAS Bachelor's Degree	Colorado Teaching License
BA in English Secondary	English Language Arts (grades 7-12)
BA in History Secondary	Social Studies (grades 7-12)
BA in Political Science Secondary	Social Studies (grades 7-12)
BA in Spanish	World Languages - Spanish (grades K-12)

Please note: Admission into the final year of the SEHD teacher education program, called the Professional Year, is a separate process from admission to the university or admission to CLAS. See the SEHD website for application deadlines.
